Description

Juno is a well put together mare with three uphill, balanced paces. She is soft in the contact and carries herself in a correct frame. Juno knows all of her lateral moves and has fluent changes. Juno is currently schooling at elementary level with all the talent to go up the levels in dressage! Juno has done several BD tests on a ticket and regularly places with scores of high 60's early 70's. Her BE record speaks for itself with several top 10 placings at BE100. Dressage scores as low as 20.8%. To jump Juno is scopey, careful and brave. She is currently jumping 1m10 unaffiliated with the scope to make the step up to the next level! She will jump off any stride and has all the talent to pursue a career in show jumping or continue her eventing career and step up to novice level. Juno is good to hack alone and in company and will happily canter buckle end however she has not seen much traffic prior coming to us so for this reason cannot vouch that she is good in traffic. Juno is a lovely mare to have on the yard, she is good to catch and handle. She is happy stabled or turned out. No novices please, Juno is a fit competition horse. She is good to box. shoe, clip. Open to any vettings. For sale on behalf of a client due to a change in circumstances. £9000 ono
